

- Have the Myoware sensor ready to be integrated with the wereable device.
- The wereable device should be ready and be able to give signals.
- The Sensors, the camera and the robot should be working as needed to be properly combined.
- Have the system working properly so that the Final Report can be completed.